TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR NETWORK MEMBERSHIP

§ I. Networks for Attorneys and Jurists, Support Networks, Client Networks

International Legal Association (ILA) maintains several Main Networks comprising reputable attorneys, jurists, and organizations specializing in various fields of law. The purpose of these networks, as well as the overall structure, is to facilitate international collaboration and ensure consistently high professional levels.

ILA also maintains several Support Networks comprising reputable providers of business-to-business services and products of significant value to attorneys and jurists. The purpose of these networks, as well as the overall structure, is to strengthen the competitiveness of the members of our main networks.

ILA also maintains several client networks comprising organizations and individuals who have a legitimate interest in the services offered by ILA, its members, and/or its Main Network Members.

§ II. Network Services

Network Members enjoy privileged access to various information products and services as may be offered from time to time, subject to the Programs and Benefits Chart and the Terms and Conditions for Network Programs.
